Office of the Inspector of Agricultural Banks in Mysore,
Dated, Camp Chikmagalur, 16th February 1900

From

The Inspector of Agricultural Banks in Mysore.

To

The Secretary to the Government of Mysore, General and Revenue Departments, Bangalore.

His docket No. 5856/Fl 812 dated 14th instant enquiring why the detailed Contingent bills of this office for November and December 1899 were submitted to him for countersignature, while similar bills for previous months had been sent to the Comptroller direct, for audit.

In reply I have the honor to report as follows:—

The Abstract-Contingent-bill of this office for January 1900 was prepared and sent to the Comptroller subsequent to the 16th of that month with a certificate in the form printed at the back of the Contingent abstract bill form. That certificate required a declaration that all detailed Contingent bills for Contingent charges drawn prior to the 1st January 1900 had been forwarded with vouchers to the Head of the Department for countersignature and transmission to the Comptroller. Accordingly the detailed Contingent-bills for November and December were submitted to the Secretariat for countersignature, and then the abstract-

Contingent-

Contingent bill for January was transmitted to the Comptroller. Secondly the Charge for ~ Rs 43-12-0 in the bill for December 1879 was one requiring the consideration and orders of the Countersigning Officer.

The Bills, with vouchers, are re-submitted.

Bangalore.

His docket No. 7270/Fl. 972 dated 10th instant, enquiring why Contingent Bills of this office for October 1899 and previous months were not submitted to Government but sent direct to the Comptroller.

Has the honor to report that so far as the undersigned has been able to ascertain, it was the practice of this office ever since a permanent advance was sanctioned for it, to Submit Contingent Bills to the Comptroller's office direct for audit: this office, and probably the comptroller's office also, having been under the impression that the Inspector of Agricultural Banks was an officer whose Contingent Bills required no countersignature.

2 The 2 Bills with vouchers received with the above are returnsubmitted.
